WANT NEW GOVERNOR

KINGSTON CITIZENS HOLD A PUBLIC MEETING AND DENOUNCE LLEWELLYN

RESOLUTIONS ARE VIOLENT

Protest Against Compulsory Emigration Scheme of the Government, and Flatly Deny Statement That Homes Cannot Be Found for Destitute Families—Appeal to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain to Intervene.

Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 17.—The public meeting held here to discuss alleged misgovernment and maladministration of relief funds was both enthusiastic and orderly. Thousands of persons of all classes, including Carib Indians, and other sufferers from the recent volcanic eruptions were present. The Rev. Newlands occupied the chair. The following resolutions, moved by the editor of the SENTRY, seconded by the Rev. Darrell, and supported by Conrad Simmons and others, including laborers, was unanimously carried:

"Whereas, by the eruption of May 7 a large area of cultivated land was devastated and thousands of people were rendered homeless and destitute in addition, and abundant supplies in kind and large sums of money were contributed, fully sufficient to relieve the distress and re-establish the industries of the colonies, and Emigration Compulsory.

"Whereas, under the pretense of there being no land obtainable at reasonable rates, a large number of sufferers, after the lapse of five months, have not been provided with homes or lands and the governor of the Windward Islands insists that they shall emigrate to Jamaica under the following threat contained in a published minute to the administration of St. Vincent, dated Sept. 24, 'you should make them clearly understand that if they refuse this opportunity no more relief will be given them,' and

"Whereas, it is a matter of public notoriety, while many of these people have been starving, large quantities of the supplies contributed by the American government for relief have been generally shipped from the colonies, and other supplies lie rotting in storehouses, and

"Whereas, notwithstanding the governor's statement to the contrary, there are suitable lands available upon which to settle the people; be it therefore

Meeting Strongly Protests.

"Resolved, that this meeting protests against the compulsory emigration scheme contained in the governor's minute to the administrator as a monstrous violation of the rights and liberties of the loyal subjects of King Edward and as an inequitable attempt to deprive them of their rightful share in help from the relief fund, thereby frustrating the intentions of the generous contributors of this fund. This meeting flatly contradicts the governor's statement in the minute above referred to, namely, that 'the government cannot find homes for these people.' The government is holding in trust for these people a very large sum of money, sufficient not only to acquire the lands necessary, but to assist in restoring the industries of the colony; and,

Ask Chamberlain to Intervene.

"Resolved, That this meeting hereby calls upon the imperial secretary of state for the colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, to intervene between these people and the obstinate, cruel and arbitrary policy of the governor of the islands, and to direct that the sufferers be located in their own colony and homes without further delay."

The meeting further appealed to the colonial secretary to relieve Sir Robert Llewellyn of the government of this colony, to send a commissioner to replace A. M. Ashmore, government secretary at Demerara, and to appoint a competent administrator to deal direct with the imperial colonial office.

APPEALS THE CASE.

Government Will Carry Land Grant Suit to Supreme Court.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 17.—The United States government has filed notice in the federal court here of an appeal of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas land grant case to the United States supreme court. The case involves the title to millions of acres of land along the railroad right of way.

The government, in its appeal, maintains that the railroad company by means of fraud and misrepresentation obtained a great deal of land to which it was not entitled under the grant. The case was decided in the United States circuit court against the government.

Has No Meeting Place.

Albert Lea, Minn., Oct. 17.—For the first time in its history the Minnesota Federation of Woman's Clubs has disbanded its convention without knowing where it is to meet next year. No invitation was received from any town, so the place of the meeting will be left in the hands of the executive board. Absolute harmony has characterized the sessions of the eighth annual meeting which closed here at night.

SOUFRIERE IN ACTION.

Volcano Belches Forth Stones, Sand and Dust.

Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 17.—A terrific eruption of the Soufriere volcano commenced Wednesday night. During Tuesday earth tremors, apparently too slight to be considered important, were experienced in the central and northern parts of the island.

At 8 o'clock p. m. there were indubitable indications of an eruption. Rumbling noises were heard. They increased until 9 o'clock, when the roaring volcanic giant belched out its deadly contents. This eruption was followed by a brief lull. Then from 10 o'clock until 4 o'clock in the morning the upheaval continued. The outbreak was accompanied by an incessant and confused cannonading. There were incandescent clouds and sparkling matter was ejected. After 4 o'clock the disturbance gradually decreased, but the noise of the boiling cauldron is still audible in the districts near the volcano.

Both craters of the Soufriere were apparently active; they have been steaming all day long. Sand fell heavily everywhere from 1:30 until 2:30 a. m. At Southern point the sand is half an inch deep, the depth gradually increased toward the volcanic cone, where there showers of large stones, pebbles and cinders fell.

Kingston and other southern points of the island have not been damaged. Reports from the Windward district are awaited. This eruption caused darkness at Bridgetown, island of Barbadoes, at 10 o'clock in the morning. There was a fall of volcanic dust there.

CABINET WILL APPROVE.

Havana Business Men Predict Favorable Action on Treaty.

Havana, Oct. 17.—Business men who have been called in to consult with President Palma on the proposed Cuban-American commercial treaty feel assured that the cabinet will approve the proposition of the United States, and that it will be sent to congress within a few days for adoption. There is some fear that the radical element in congress will object to approving any commercial treaty without first settling the question of coaling stations and without being informed clearly of the intentions of the United States with regard to the enforcement of the Platt amendment.

The commercial treaty submitted to Cuba by Washington is practically the Bliss tariff schedule, which was drawn up just before the American military government withdrew from the island and which leaves the present duty in force against all other nations, but gives the United States a differential of from 20 to 60 per cent. In return the United States offers Cuba a reduction in duties of 20 per cent. This was considered too small in proportion to the benefit asked by the United States, and in the beginning there was a strong inclination to reject the proposition, but it was explained that under existing conditions in the United States and considering that the bill was passed by the house of representatives in Washington more could not be offered at present.

REGISTRATIONS A FARCE.

Federals Shut Out in a Majority of Precincts in Porto Rico.

San Juan, P. R., Oct. 17.—The election registrations have been a complete farce. The Federals were shut out in a majority of the precincts of the island, due to an order of the executive council placing a majority of reports on each board. At Viquez eight insular policemen guarded the booth. No Federals were admitted and none registered. In many towns there have been no Federal registrations and in consequence in several towns, in addition to Cayey, the Federals formally retired from the elections. In order to remedy this the supervisor of elections allowed an extra registration day Wednesday, but with the same result. Although instructions were wired to all the precincts to protect the rights of the Federals they were uniformly disregarded. Wherever Federals attempted to register there was more or less disorder. Shooting affairs occurred at Aguadilla, Corozol, Viquez and Mayaguez. Some persons were wounded, but there were no fatalities. Wholesale arrests of Federal were made and thousands of protests and charges have been filed.

DIAMONDS STOLEN.

Duluth Woman Loses Some Valuable Jewelry.

Duluth, Oct. 17.—Seven thousand dollars' worth of diamonds and precious stones were stolen from the counter in the First National bank building late in the afternoon. The victim was Mrs. T. D. Merrill, a prominent society woman and wife of the senior member of the firm of Merrill & Ring, lumbermen. Mrs. Merrill had just come from the safety deposit vaults, where she drew out the jewels and lay them down, then leaving the building. Discovering her loss, she hastened back, but the jewels had disappeared. The police say there is no clue to the thief.

Lipton's Challenge Accepted.

New York, Oct. 17.—The New York Yacht club has sent a cablegram to Sir Thomas Lipton accepting his challenge for the America's cup on the same conditions for which it was raced for the last time.

WILL the democrats claim the credit of settling the coal strike?
 VOTE for H. A. Rider and I. W. Bouck for representatives when you go to the polls on Nov. 4.

THE republican legislative ticket in this district will be elected by an increased majority over any previous election.

THE democrats should get together on state issues. Rosing advocates the increase of the gross earning rate while Larrabee is opposed to it.

SENATOR NELSON certainly struck a popular sentiment last night when he said that a city of the size and importance of Brainerd should have a public building. The gentleman, unsolicited, pledged his support of a measure that would give us what has long been needed in this line. In this connection the election of a republican congressman who will work to the same end is needed and C. B. Buckman will work with Senator Nelson for the appropriation if he is the choice of the people of this district on Nov. 4. The election of a democrat to congress would put to rest any idea of the public improvement for four years at least as the democrat would be out of joint with the administration even if so disposed. The citizens of Brainerd and Crow Wing county will serve their best interests by voting for C. B. Buckman regardless of politics.

THREE MORE CHECKS LOCATED.

Gunther Menze Had Some of the Fictitious Monarch Elevator Checks Cash-ed in St. Paul.

Three more of the forged checks of the Monarch Elevator Co., have been located in St. Paul. This time again they were for $29.50 each and it has now developed that Gunther Menze, the forger, is a criminal of the worst dye. There is but little doubt but that all the twelve blank checks that were torn out of the check book at J. C. Hessel's office, have been used and that money has been realized on them. He denies positively each time there is a check found that there is another out, but he has been found to be a falsifier of the worst stripe. The arrest of the young man and the subsequent unraveling of his atrocious crime has caused quite a sensation in the Daggett brook country where he is very well known.

WAS ARRESTED ON FORGERY CHARGE.

Young Man in St. Paul Used Worthless Check Purported to be Signed by A. F. Ferris.

PRESENTED AT MERCHANT'S

Young Man Said to Be Son of Wealthy Boston Banker-- Tells a Strange Tale.

The following from the St. Paul Dispatch will be of interest to Brainerd readers:

"W. S. Young, 26 year of age, who claims Boston as his home and refuses to divulge the name of his step-father, a wealthy banker, is under arrest on a charge of attempting to pass a forged check at the Merchant's hotel.

"The check, on the First National bank of Brainerd, Minn., was signed with the name A. F. Ferris, the president. The sum was $20. Young, who is educated, judging from his conversation and a college pin with "P" on it, says he received the check from a man named John G. Notté, whom he met on the train en route from Portland to St. Paul last week. Notté gave him a Masonic call for aid, and Young, he says, lent him $20, promising to return the money as soon as he reached St. Paul.

"Seeing him in St. Paul later I told him that I needed my money. He said that Mr. Ferris had given him a check that day, and he handed me a check, signed by Ferris, for $20. I questioned the check but he assured me it was good.

"I had doubts about the check when I turned it over to the clerk of the Merchants hotel. I asked him to collect it, if it proved good, and to apply the proceeds on my bill. After that I was arrested.

"The police ascertained that Young was a Mason of high degree and they are inclined to believe his story."

Seen this mornaing Mr. Ferris said that he had heard about the matter but did not care to prosecute the man.

It is said at the legation that General Perdomo is minister of the interior and not of state.

HE IS A PRISONER IN MONTANA PEN

Theo. Hartman who Served Sentence in County Jail Here up Against it Out West.

GOT INTO TROUBLE RIGHT AWAY

Henry Williams who Broke Jail Here Has Been Captured at Livingston, Mont.

Theo. Hartman, the man who was arrested in this city early last spring on the the charge of robbery, is doing time in the state penitentiary of Montana, although it is hardly two months since he completed his sentence in the county jail in this city. It will be remembered that Hartman was arrested charged with stealing a suit of clothes from a brakeman in this city, skipping out afterwards to Aitkin. He was given a hearing, plead guilty and afterwards sentenced to sixty days in the county jail. After completing his sentence here he went west and got into trouble immediately and now word comes that he was sent to the pen for two years, charged with burglary.

Sheriff Erickson has also received word that Henry Williams, the box car thief who broke jail here on September 2 last, has been captured at Livingston, Mont. He broke open several cars in the yards and his luck will probably draw him a neat little term at the state pen. He will be brought back to Brainerd for trial and it is dollars to doughnuts that he will wish he never made his escape.

SENATOR NELSON ON NATIONAL ISSUES

He Spoke to a Large Audience at Brainerd Opera House Last Night.

WAS A SCHOLARLY EFFORT.

Spoke of Trusts, the Tariff, Philippine Question and State and Legislative Tickets.

Senator Knute Nelson delivered an address at the Brainerd Opera House last night on the issues of the campaign, local and national, and it was a great speech.

The house was packed and it was one of the most auspicious political gatherings that has ever been held in Brainerd. The senator was at his best last night and propounded theory after theory in that vigorous style for which he has now grown famous. His address was entirely devoid of any of the spellbinding and merrymaking features but he dealt in solid facts appertaining to most recent history and his simple but straightforward reasoning drove home every argument set forth.

The audience was a representative one and listened attentively to all that the speaker had to say. There were many women present also and they were as attentive as the gentlemen of the audience.

All the questions which have been raised by the opposition in this campaign were exhaustively gone into by the senator and he dealt blow after blow to the democratic party. It was a scholarly effort dealing with the local, state and national issues—the trusts, Philippine question, the tariff and the “tariff reform” of the democracy and the state ticket.

PROTECTION THE KEY NOTE.
Protection was the golden thread which run through the entire effort. He had no sympathy with those who would pull down the tariff system which he maintained had built up the prosperity of the country and had solved the great money question. He was in favor of the policy of the government in dealing with the Philippines and Porto Rico; believed that the trusts should be regulated by congress, and spoke at length about the state and legislative ticket. On the stage there was a large delegation of the staunch republicans of the city and county. Chairman John T. Frater, of the county central committee, presided over the meeting and he introduced first Mayor A. J. Halsted. The mayor considered it a deep compliment at the hands of the county central committee to be called upon to say a few words to such an audience. He congratulated the republican party on the fact that the outlook for a good old fashioned republican victory on the fourth of November was now assured. He paid a glowing tribute to Gov. Van Sant and believed that he would be elected by a handsome majority and the legislature will certainly be republican. He paid a high compliment to the gallant Rough Rider, statesman and scholar, President Roosevelt. He also complimented Hon. Knute Nelson and referred to his good record in the United States senate, at which point he introduced the speaker of the evening.

GIVE BRAINERD PUBLIC BUILDING.

The senator said in part:

“This magnificent opera house, with many other things, shows to me that you have in Brainerd had your full share of prosperity during the past four or five years. I appreciate the opportunity of standing before a Brainerd audience as I have been many times here and have always been treated handsomely. Then too, there is such a good republican air about the city, and the republican atmosphere is about as strong and vigorous in Brainerd as anywhere in the state. There is another conclusion that I have drawn after seeing that the people of Brainerd had the pluck to build such a fine opera house and that is that you are entitled to a public building and I shall make every effort to aid in this respect and will act in cooperation with your representative from this district to get an appropriation from congress. We may not be able to get this appropriation at the next session for it is what is known as a short session.

PRaises Gov. Van Sant.

“I congratulate the people of Minnesota on the fact that they live in a state where the climate and soil is all that could be desired, the system of government the best, its food and dairy laws thorough and its labor law well nigh perfect. Especially is the school fund of the state a matter which we should feel proud of. But one state in the union has a larger school fund and that is Texas. And these latter good features must be accorded to the republican party's reign in the state. And let me tell you that Gov. Van Sant is one of the ablest executives the state has ever had. He has the interest of the people of this state at heart, and has not hesitated to grapple with the mightiest organization of wealth in the nation, when it attempted an act which in his judgement would work harm to the people of the state. In the early part of last winter, when the Northern Securities company sought to merge the two great Pacific roads running from the great lakes to the Pacific ocean, he attacked the merger by the famous suit instituted under the Sherman anti-trust laws, and every possible step has been taken to enforce the law and protect the public.

COMPETITION IS NECESSARY.

“In dealing with the trusts, the vital question to be considered are transportation and manufacturing. It is necessary that there be competition, in order that the public be protected on prices and rates, and Governor Van Sant is entitled to the greatest credit for grappling with the question as he has. Let us show that we are in sympathy with him; let us uphold his hands in his position, by voting for him at the coming election.

“A great principle is involved. His action is of the first importance to the people, and it is also of the first importance that when our officials show the right disposition we should buckle on our political armor and come to their assistance.

“He is being opposed by, not only the two roads whose enmity he has earned, but by the whole trust system. Their most earnest wish is to defeat him, and should this be accomplished, which is not likely, their next move will be to attack President Roosevelt.

“They will be emboldened by their first taste of blood to try for bigger game. You must meet the trust enemy at home.”

ALSO PRAISE FOR BUCKMAN.

“Then there is your candidate for congress, Senator C. B. Buckman. I have known him for years. He is an earnest, energetic worker, has grown up among you, working himself up from a poor young man to a position of independence, always proving himself a friend of the people of his district. He has proved himself an efficient worker in the state legislature and will make one of the strongest men in congress from the state of Minnesota.

BOUQUET FOR A. F. FERRIS.

“A. F. Ferris, your candidate for the state senate, has been one of the most prominent leaders in the house of representatives for years and he has always been found in the front of the battle, always looking after the interests of his district. The people of the district have showed good wisdom and judgment in placing him in nomination for this position, for he has had the legislative experience, and will be an able man in the upper house. The candidates for the house, Messrs. Rider and Bouck, I also know. They will also prove themselves efficient and able legislators. The county ticket I understand is also a good one and I hope that there will be large republican majorities here.”

DEMOCRACY IS ASSAILED.

The senator then passed on to the national issues of the day:

“It is but necessary to look at the history of the past ten years to determine what is your present duty. In the fall of 1892 the country was in a fairly prosperous condition.

“The country had been in the hands of a republican administration for four years. There was plenty of revenue to run the government, and during Harrison's administration the great national debt left by the civil war had been reduced $260,000,000.

“The democrats came on with their demand for tariff reform, as they come now.

“They said we were not getting enough for our money. They said high prices were due to the McKinley law, and asked to be given control of the national government, that they might repeal it. Cleveland and a democratic congress were elected that fall and an examination of the vote shows that they were returned very largely by the vote of the laboring people in the large cities.

BITTEREST OF ALL PANICS.

“What was the result? Instead of better times, there followed the hardest times within the memory of this generation. With Cleveland came stagnation.

“The manufacturers, who had built their plans on the basis of a protective policy, knew that the democrats were given office after making the promise to destroy that policy. They became scared. There was an industrial panic. The factories were closed, and the workers idle.

“On the heels of the industrial stagnation, the money of the country disappeared from circulation in 1893. Rich men, even, couldn't borrow on the best security. It was hid away in vaults, closets and stockings. What caused this panic? Money was as plentiful in 1893 as in 1892. The financial world had confidence in Harrison, and that confidence departed when Cleveland took hold. Wealth was scared. It didn't know what the financial and industrial policy was to be. Cleveland's only move to relieve the situation was to repeal the silver purchase law, and this was accomplished by the republicans, with the aid of the democrats from the Northern states. A tariff revision law was passed that reduced the revenue below the running expenses of the government, and, as a relief for this, $262,000,000 of bonds were added to the national debt. And the dreadful industrial and financial depression continued.

STILL ANOTHER REMEDY.

“In 1896 the democrats came on with another remedy. They said there was too little money, and wanted the free coinage of silver, to relieve the situation. The republicans told the people that free silver would not give them more money. They said that it would drive gold out of circulation, and depreciate silver by reducing the coin to its bullion value, thus putting the country on a par with Mexico and China. We told them what was needed was a tariff law on the lines of the McKinley law, which would bring back prosperity and put money in circulation. Just as soon as it was known that Bryanism was defeated, the money of the country returned into trade.

In the spring of 1897 the Dingley law was enacted, and it brought almost instant revival. Mills, shops and factories started up, and labor received remunerative employment. This was followed by the greatest growth in our foreign trade in history. This was so marked that the balances of trade in our favor increased from $286,000,000 during the last year of Cleveland's administration to $615,000,000 the first year of the Dingley law, and since 1897 we have in our favor the vast total of $2,830,000,000. The protective tariff not only did this but it solved the money question. The national cur-

DELEGATE CONVENTION

MINERS' EXECUTIVE BOARDS ISSUE A CALL FOR A MEETING AT WILKESBARRE.

EXPECT FAVORABLE ACTION

Union Officials Believe Men Will Accept Proposition of Operators After President Mitchell Explains All Its Features—Resumption of Mining Expected to Occur on Friday of Next Week at Latest.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 17.—The executive boards of the three anthracite districts of the United Mine Workers of America in joint session here unanimously decided to recommend to a delegate convention of striking miners the acceptance of the arbitration proposition submitted by the president of the United States and it is reasonably certain that the advice will be followed and the great struggle brought to a close. The convention will be convened in this city Monday morning, and it is the hope and the belief of the officers of the union that the mining of coal will be resumed before the close of next week after a suspension of more than five months. The citizens of the entire region are much elated that the strike is almost over, because business in the coal fields has been practically paralyzed since the strike began.

Some Doubt for a Time.

From the time the news was received until about 10 o'clock in the morning there was some doubt as to how the miners would receive the modified plan. President Mitchell was asked to make some expression on the proposition, but he steadfastly refused. He was pressed by the correspondents for a statement and finally at 10 o'clock he cleared up the situation by issuing the following bulletin:

"Appreciating the anxiety and impatience of the public and the mine workers for some authoritative statement from this office I issue this bulletin to say that I was unalterably opposed to the acceptance of or acquiescence in the form of settlement proposed by the coal operators, because it restricted the president of the United States in making selection of the men who were to determine the questions involved in the coal strike. These restrictions having been removed and representation given to organized labor as well as to organized capital I am now prepared to give my personal approval to a settlement of the issues involved in this strike by the commission selected by the president and shall recommend to the executive officers of Districts 1, 7, and 9, in their meeting, that an immediate call be issued for a convention, whose authorization is necessary to declare the strike at an end.

General Satisfaction Expressed.

When this was read to the arriving district leaders and groups of miners, who came to headquarters to learn the news, general satisfaction was expressed that Mr. Mitchell was willing to accept the modified plan and from that on there was no doubt that the strike would be brought to a speedy close. It was not until 2 o'clock that the thirty-seven members of the three district boards were called into session, which lasted two hours and fifteen minutes. There was some opposition manifested in the meeting against certain features of the plan, but after a full discussion of the objectionable parts a unanimous vote was taken to recommend to the convention the acceptance of the proposition. As the conference was held behind closed doors and a bond of secrecy was placed on every man present, the specific objections were not officially announced. These are same executive boards which on May 8 last ordered the strike to begin, which action was approved, in the Face of Mr. Mitchell's Opposition, by the Hazleton convention a few days later. It is expected that some objections will be raised on the floor of the convention, but the officers are confident that the opposition will disappear when President Mitchell explains all the features of the modified proposition to the delegates.

A question was raised as to whether Commissioner Wright, who will be the recorder of the commission, shall have the right to vote in case the six other members of the board are equally divided on any question in connection with a settlement. Mr. Mitchell, when asked, appeared to be sure that he had not, and other officials of the union were also uncertain of Mr. Wright's status. The matter of the term of years that the agreement shall be in force was also a source of much inquiry. The union was strongly opposed to the operators fixing the term of years.

One of the district presidents said this feature had been left to the discretion of the commission, as suggested in Mr. Mitchell's proposition, while other officials said they knew nothing about it. President Mitchell for some reason did not care to discuss any feature of the arbitration agreement while the matter was still in the hands of the miners.

Resumption of Mining Thursday.

If the plans of the strike leaders are not disarranged, a general resumption of mining will take place about next Thursday. It is expected the convention will last two days and that there will be an interval of one day from the time the convention adjourns until the time set for the men to go back to the mines. If the convention should be in session on Wednesday it is probable resumption would not take place until Friday. There will not be enough work at first for all the strikers, as it is the intention of the companies not to dismiss the non-union men who have stood by them during the strike. The organization will take care of such other men who are unable to find work. It is estimated that all the strikers will not find work until two or three months have elapsed. This is due to the conditions of the mines. Some of them are wholly or partially flooded and others need repairing.

Busy Day for Mitchell.

It was a lively day about strike headquarters. From early in the morning until after the announcement was made that a convention would be called a crowd was congregated at the place. Mr. Mitchell spent an extremely busy day. In the morning he had many callers who came to congratulate him and in the afternoon he was engaged with the three district boards. Telegrams of congratulation from all parts of the country came to the leader of the miners during the day.

The coal companies, anticipating the ending of the strike next week, are busily engaged in preparing for resumption. Tens of thousands of coal cars are in the regions ready for loading and extra efforts will be made in moving them to the large distributing centers once mining is resumed. It is estimated that more than 200 of the 380 collieries will be in operation by the end of next week and will produce enough coal to relieve the situation.

An authority on coal mining says that the coal companies, as a result of the strike, are 30,000,000 of tons behind.

President Mitchell has notified President Roosevelt of the action of the three executive boards. He will not give out the text of the message.

THE OFFICIAL CALL.

Union Officers and Members Notified of Wilkesbarre Meeting.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 17.—The following is the official call for the delegate convention of the anthracite districts of the United Mine Workers of America, to be held here next Monday:

"To the Officers and Members of All Local Unions in Districts 1, 7 and 9: 'Gentlemen—At a meeting of the executive boards of Districts 1, 7 and 9 it was unanimously agreed to issue a call for a delegate convention and recommend to that convention that all mine workers now on strike return to their former positions and working places, and submit to the commission appointed by the president of the United States, all questions at issue between the operators and mine workers of the anthracite coal fields.

"In pursuance whereof you are hereby notified that a convention will be held in the city of Wilkesbarre, Pa., beginning at 10 a. m., Monday, Oct. 20. 'The purpose of the convention will be to act on the proposition submitted by the president of the United States.

Basis of Representation.

"Local unions will hold meetings not later than Friday night and elect delegates to attend said convention.

"The basis of representation will be one vote for each 100 members or less and an additional vote for each additional 100 members or major fraction thereof. The president and secretary of each local union will fill out one credential and one duplicate credential for each delegate elected. The duplicate credential should be given to the delegate elected and the original should be placed in the hands of district board members not later than Saturday night. The district board members are instructed to have all credentials in the hands of the credential committee Sunday afternoon.

"It is recommended that delegates be given full power and authority to act in behalf of their local union.

"The name of the hall in which the convention will be held will be announced later. Hotel accommodations are being arranged and will be announced to delegates upon their arrival.

"Respectfully submitted on behalf of the executive boards of Districts 1, 7 and 9."

The call is signed by John Mitchell, W. B. Wilson and George Hartlein.

NO TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Plenty of Work in Prospect for Union and Nonunion Miners.

Scranton, Oct. 17.—Of the ninety-eight collieries operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, the Delaware and Hudson, the Temple, the Erie and the Ontario and Western companies, the five "big carriers," having headquarters here, only two, the Butler, at Pittston, and the Hallstead, at Duryea, which were allowed to flood, cannot be reopened at once, that is, within a week from the time the strike is declared off.

At forty-four of these places some work has been going on. At most of the others men to the number of forty in some instances have been under ground for several weeks making repairs, cleaning up "falls" and cutting coal.

The fact that there only 10,000 non-union men at work, and that 10,000 of the striking miners have left the region or gone into other employment and will never return to the mines and the fact that the collieries will be operated to their fullest capacity is certain to prevent any possibility of conflict arising between the union and non-union men because of the one crowding out the other. It can be expected, according to a hint dropped by a local strike leader, that the union will endeavor to win over the non-unionists rather than force them out.

Beresford Promoted.

London, Oct. 17.—Rear Admiral Charles Beresford, now in the United States, has been promoted to the rank of vice admiral, as the result of the retirement of Earl Clanwilliam, admiral of the fleet.

Shot Man and Little Girl.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 17.—William Stotts, aged twenty-three, living near Vermillion, shot an unknown man and a little girl, Ruby Garden, during a fight in the afternoon. Stotts was arrested.

SENATOR NELSON ON NATIONAL ISSUE

rency had been placed on a gold basis, and there had been a general rise in the price of everything but money. The interest on money is now about half what it was in 1896. The tariff law of 1897 was alone responsible, for the currency law was not passed until three years later.

"The democrats now have another battle cry. It is the trusts. And they want to solve the trust question by pulling down the whole tariff fabric. They say that is the only way to destroy those unlawful combinations. They cry from the housetops that they are the enemies of the trusts and the republicans are its friends. But let us examine the facts. There are in the statutes of the nation three laws hostile to the trusts. These are the interstate commerce law of 1877, passed by a democratic house and republican senate, the democratic tariff of 1894 which forbids the combination of importers, and the Sherman anti-trust law passed in Harrison's administration. It will be seen from this that the only shred of anti-trust law for which the democrats can claim credit is the little insignificant clause in the law of 1894, while the Sherman act passed by the republicans, outlaws the trusts and every person connected with them.

TARIFF IS ALL RIGHT.

"The trouble is not with the tariff, and if that was torn away every one would be hit as well as the trusts. The mother of trusts is not protection but lax incorporation laws. If the laws were the same in every state, it would be possible to deal with them, but it is impossible to have it so. We say that the way to whip the trusts is to give congress power to deal with them. This must be secured with an amendment to the constitution. The republicans tried to secure this in 1900, and were defeated by failing to secure the necessary two-thirds vote in congress. Let us see how the democrats, the self-styled enemies of the trusts, voted on that question. One hundred and twenty democrats voted against it and five for it. It was defeated because of democratic opposition. And Representative Richardson stated in the Washington Post, a democratic paper, that his party could not afford to have the trust question solved by the Republicans because it would rob them of their campaign thunder.

"The way to solve the trust question is not to destroy the tariff and prosperity. I believe in a protective tariff, such as will cover the difference in the cost of production here and in other countries. To solve the trust problem place these organizations in the control of the national government, by giving a republican congress a chance to secure a congressional amendment. When congress gets control of the trusts relief will come. If you remove the tariff it will be simply a fight between the foreign trusts and the American trusts, and of the two I prefer the American trust.

"If the democrats are allowed to tinker with the trust it will be the same old story of failure, wreck and disaster."

FAVORS PHILIPPINE POLICY.

The speaker then referred to the Philippines. He said that in dealing with them the government had pursued the only policy that a humane and Christian nation could follow to prevent them from falling into anarchy or being devoured by the nations of the old world; that history would show the wisdom of this course, America needs a foreign market for its products, and Manila will be its distributing point in the east. It is at the door of Japan, China, India and Australia, and from that port the products of this nation will dominate the Oriental market.

He referred to the war with Spain carried on by a republican administration and said that, short, and comparatively bloodless as it was, it raised the United States to a world power, and increased the respect that other nations feel for us tenfold.

He praised the statesmanship displayed in dealing with Porto Rico and Cuba. The former he said, had been admitted to full territorial rights and a greater measure of liberty than the people ever dreamt of when under Spanish rule. In Cuba this nation had brought them out from under an intolerable tyranny, cleaned their reeking cities, established an educational system and schooled them for three years in the ways of freedom. Then as a last crowning act it launched the island upon its career as one of the nations of the world, and solemnly bound itself to watch over its growth and protect it from every enemy for all time.

In conclusion he appealed to his hearers to sustain the republican party, the party of achievement, the party which solved all the great questions right, and to pay no heed to the pretenses of the democrats, with their record of blunder, failure and destruction.
